IS NO CHANGE IN CANAL SITUATION

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., September 28.—
The following bulletin was posted at the State Department to-day:
"The Department of State received to-day at 1:1? P. M. a cablegram from Minister Beaupre, dated September 28th, 8 P. M. He reports that there has been no change in the situation in respect to the canal matter. A second debate on the bill reported by the committee is expected within a few days, and it is thought it may be defeated. The present outlook is for some amendment of the reported bill,

MEDICAL COLLEGES ARE TO OPEN TO-DAY

Both the Medical College of Virginia and the University College of Medical and the University College of Medical with open their sessions co-day, the day being devoted to preliminary exercises, On Wednesday the work of the classes will begin regularly, and will be kept up for the session with as few interruptions as possible. The outlook at both colleges is excellent, the attendance promising to considerably exceed that of last year. Nearly all those who did not finish the course last year will be back for the session, and the number of new students promises to be large.

There is great enthustasm among the students of the two schools, and the rivalry between them is confined maintaining high standards of scholarship and curriculum. It is not unlikely that the matter of organizing foot-ball teams at the two schools may be considered, but whether anything will come of it remains to be seen.

nob, which grows hourly, is a more or less demoralized police department and a small company of militiamen. An assault upon the office building by the mob early this evening, before the arrival on the ground of the troops, was successful, and a mass of frenzled rioters secured possession of the ground floor of the building, destroying everything movable that came in their path.

A crowd of the office staff, with drawn revolvers, prevented their gaining access to the upper floors of the building. Every window and door in the building. Every window and door in the building is smashed in. The arrival of the troops on the grounds, armed with ball cartridges, about 2 o'clock, served to restore some semblance of order. The rioters then contented themselves with throwing stones at the building and hurling invectives at the soldier, who established a "dead line" and grevented any approach toward the building by any of the rioters.

The greatest number of the mob are proach toward the building by any of the rioters.

The greatest number of the mob are ignorant Italians, Finns, Norweglans and Frenchmen, the latter perhaps the hardest of all to handle. All have been drinking more or less, although the bars this evening finally obeyed the order to close up. The mob is one that cannot be reasoned with. The man they seem most anxious to get at is Mr. Coyne, the assistant manager, who, in the absence of Mr. Shields, is in charge of the works. ## THEY WANT DR. M'FADEN HERE

Committee from First Pres byterian Church Waits Upon Him.

From what little can be gathered here. added to more positive statements from Lynchburg to the same effect, there seems to be no doubt that the Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D., of the First Presbyte-rian Church of the last named city, has been invited to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, in sucwho recently went to Baltimore.

A prominent member of the church de-clined last night in any way to discuss the reported call. This is taken as a strong indication that there is at least some ground for the report, though it is hardly true as yet that a formal call has been extended. The committee which say Dr. McFaden Sunday probably

PLAN BLOTS JACKSON WARD FROM THE MAP

The Committee on Charter, Ordinances and Reform last night recommended a plan to the Council for redistricting the city, which will eliminate Jackson Ward, run the lines for the most part from south to north; the new ward to bear the name of Stuart," the dashing Confederate cavalry leader.

The boundaries of the proposed seven wards, with their population, are as follows:

Marshall-Twenty-seventh street, south to Broad; west to Twenty-sixth; south to river. Population, 10,875.

Jefferson—Fifteenth street, north to Broad; east to Eighteenth; north to Venable; east to Mosby; north to line. Population, 10,875. Madison-Seventh to Duval; west to Fifth; south to river.

Population, 12,279. Monroe—St. James, south to Jackson; east to First; south to river. Populatian, 12,952.

to river. Populatian, 12,392.

Stuart—Brook Avenue, south to Monroe street; south to Main; west to Belvidere; south to river. Population, 12,167.

Lee and Clay will be divided by the following line, the north side being Lee and the south side Clay Ward—Belvidere and side being Lee. Main, north to Franklin; west to Laurel; south to Park Avenue; west to Ivy; west to city limits.
Population of Lee, 10,860.

Population of Clay. 12,866.

The Committee also adopted Capt. Hall's resolution reducing the representation in the Board from three to two in each ward, and in the Council from five to three.

The conditions which prompt the liquidation and the probable limits of its extent are consequently the subject of grave disquiet and apprehension. It was the failure of stock jobbing operations that brought the early selling and the losses represented were almost wholly on paper, as the previous gains had been. But later episodes represent the failure of enterprises in which extensive capital had been embarked at demostrably unproductive employment. Capital thus sunk is capital lost,

DREAD OVER SITUATION.

DREAD OVER SITUATION. DREAD OVER SITUATION.
Comptreller Ridgeley's opinion, expressed before the Maryland and Washington bankers that "a large percentage of the loaning power has gone into unproductive interests" formulates the dread of Wall Street over the present situation. The reaction in the fron and steel industries; the high interest rates, especially on mercantile paper, and the curtailment of production in other lines, caused the fear that over-extension has spread to industrial and commercial lines representing additional "unproductive interests," to be followed by liquidation and contraction.

The present course of the banks is di-

The present course of the banks is directed towards conserving the commercial and industrial needs for credit and to this end they are inexorable to all promotions and financing projects. Jacob H. Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., commenting upon stock market and financial conditions, said: "No matter what may be said as to the causes which have brought about the present situation, prevailing conditions throughout the country do not justify the existing great declina in substantial securities.

Union League Has No Such Intention Apparently.

Plans Formed for a Permanent Organ ization, and a Committee Appointed to Prepare Set of By-

The recently organized Labor League of Filchmond held a meeting last uight at the hall over No. 212 East Broad Street, which was well attended—better, in fact, than either of the previous meetings of the organization. President John M. Ryall was in the presiding officer's chair, and Mr. W. H. Mullen secretary.

Plans for permanent organization were discussed and a committee named to draft and report a declaration of principles and tenets and prepare by-laws for the league. Nothing whatever was done looking to the nomination of a legislative ticket or coalition with the Republicans or any other element, party or faction, with a view to placing a ticket in the field in opposition to the nominees of the Democratic primary. In fact, it is now practically assured that the league will not nominate a ticket for the legislative elec-of those in the organization supported Mr. C. M. Wallace and others in the pri-mary, and will, therefore, support the ticket named therein.

BUILD A PARISH HOUSE FOR ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

It was stated yesterday that Mr. Fred. R. Scott has decided to present a parish house to St. Paul's Church as a memorial to his father, Major Fred. R. Scott. The house will be erected in the space between the church and the rectory, and will join the church, a doorway being cut through. The house will be used as an infant class room and also as a robing place for the choir.
